

HIGH COTTON PUBLISHING

...a good place to be

Publishing books as fun to read as they were to write!

Calling all authors and aspiring authors!

Have you done everything you need to do to your manuscript?

Would you benefit from an honest, no-holds-barred evaluation of where you are on the path to publication?

If, let's talk!

I offer a "reading" service, for which I charge a "reading fee." The "reading" is a comprehensive read-through of your manuscript, soup to nuts.

I evaluate your characters, pace, and plotlines.
I look for areas of disconnect.

I may opine about your book's title, chapter names, and book cover.

I may offer my two cents about post-publication activities as well, like marketing strategies, literary award competitions, website design,
and book tour events/book promotion.

Are you ready? Let's find out!
